

Fulfilling and rewarding lives

The Government has agreed a plan to help adults with autism have fulfilling and rewarding lives.

The plan is called a strategy.

It is the first time there has been a strategy for adults with autism in England.

The strategy says how the Government, Councils, the NHS and Jobcentre Plus can work differently for adults with autism.

To find out more click this link to the National Autistic Society website:

<http://www.nas.org.uk/nas/jsp/polopoly.jsp?d=2608>