

Mid Kent College has agreed to offer lots more courses for adults with learning disabilities.

Kathy Johnson, Rick Dartnail, Wayne Hill and Christine Nwagwu went to speak for us.

12 new taster courses will start at City Way on 7th July.

We had a good idea.

We asked if we can have Buddies to help make the College a safe and friendly place for people with disabilities.

Kathy and Wayne went back to Mid Kent College on 8th June

They spoke to 40 students on health and child care courses.

Medway Police went with them.

They showed our film Living in Fear.

They said that Mid Kent College can be a scary place.

Ten students said they want to be Buddies. The training will start in July.

We want to train 100 Buddies in 2009 Pathways to Inclusion will help with the training.

About learning disability

Being a Buddy

