

Forum for Adults with a Learning Disability

Rules

The meeting is for 3 things:

To let us tell each other things
To get things done
To decide things

Everyone in Medway with a learning disability is welcome.

Only one person to talk at a time.

Respect what other people say.

Forum for Adults with a Learning Disability

What the Partnership Board does

To make sure Valuing People happens in Medway.

To work together for better services .

To make sure that people with learning disabilities, their parents and carers have a say in the Medway Plan.

The Partnership Board will develop a plan for:

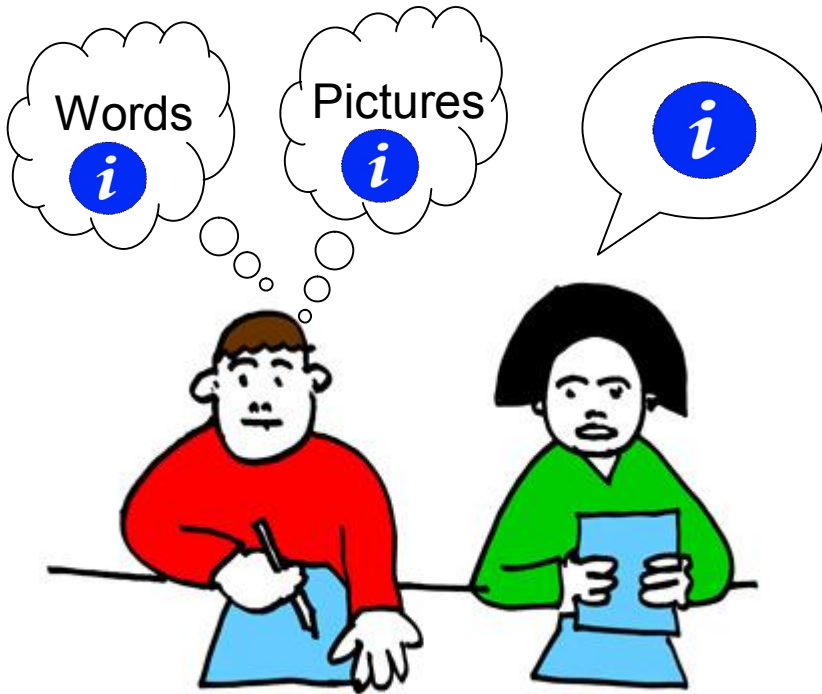

Education and lifelong learning
Money
People from black and ethnic minority communities.

To hear reports on how things are going.

Forum for Adults with a Learning Disability

The role of the note taker

My job

To bring a pen to each meeting.

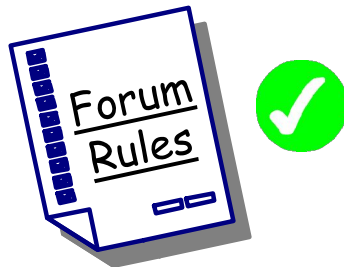

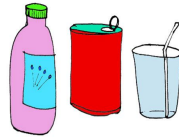

To listen to what the Forum says.

To write down what we do and say at the meetings.

Forum for Adults with a Learning Disability

The role of the Chair Person

My job

Show everybody the Fire Exits.

Check everybody has a drink.

Let people know the Forum Rules.

Ask people to keep to the Forum Rules.

Use the Agenda to make sure the meeting runs smoothly.

Ask the note taker if they have written or drawn what we agreed.