We did some team work

Good teams needs lots of types of people

People who have ideas

People who get things done

People who find things out

People who work hard to keep the team together

Follow me!

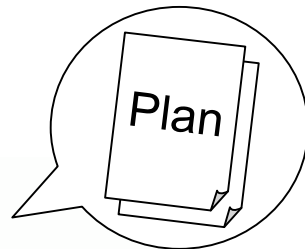

A good team needs a leader

We talked about leaders

A leader is somebody who:

- respects us
- is clear about what needs to be done so that people with learning disabilities have better lives
- is good at sharing those ideas and plans with everybody
- is a good communicator

Presentation

Graphics

We decided that we want to learn to be leaders.

We want to learn:

- how to chair meetings
- how to make presentations
- how to be good communicators
- how to make films
- how to find things out with surveys
- how to make notes with pictures and with words
